III. EXCHANGE OF GOODS WITH SWEDEN

The governments of Czechoslovakia and Sweden, in an effort to encourage commercial relations between their two countries, have made the following agreement:

1. The agreement of 17 November 1945 between Czechoslovakia and Sweden is to be extended through 31 January 1950.

2. Lists I and II of Articles I and II of the commercial agreement, and the lists attached to the Czechoslovak-Swedish protocol of 30 October 1947, are superseded by the attached Lists A1 and B1.

3. Each government will inform the other every month concerning export and import permits which have been issued in connection with this protocol.

4. This protocol will be considered temporarily in effect beginning 1 February 1949. It will go into effect officially after the two governments have exchanged notes in Prague.
